

PARTIES who intend attending the mass meeting at Bartlett to-day, must be punctually at the depot at fifteen minutes to ten of clock this morning, railroad time.

THIS almost perfect unity of sentiment in regard to the Bartlett meeting, among all men in Shelby county who are opposed to Radicalism, is one of the best signs of the times. A better one will be the unity that we hope, characterize that meeting. Let every one who attends resolve on harmony, determined to surrender something of opinion, if necessary, for the public good. We have fought recently only to be defeated. Let us, next time, fight to win. To do so, we must compose all minor differences, and present a united front to our Radical enemy. We must meet and legislate in a spirit of compromise and mutual forbearance, and provide for a convention that shall present our best men, and so invite the votes of every good citizen who has at heart the prosperity of Memphis and Shelby county.
